

Christine Corin Crawford

March 24, 1963 - September 8, 2018

Christine Corin Crawford passed peacefully just after midnight on Sept. 8, 2018, at Plumas District Hospital in Quincy after a six-year battle with non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma.

She was born March 24, 1963, in Chardon, Ohio, and graduated from West Geaga High School. In 1981 she came west to attend business classes at Feather River College. While also working as a CNA at Quincy Convalescent Hospital, she met Tom, her husband-to-be. They were married in 1984 in Meadow Valley by Father Christopher Seal, of Christ the King Episcopal Church in Quincy.

She then worked at Epilog Express Bookstore, the Plumas County Library and finally Plumas Rural Services. There over 15 years, she rose to Program Director then created her own Department of Information Technology. For several years she was also evening librarian at Feather River College, helping to fund the home she and her husband were building.

In 2006 she made the bold move to purchase Bookshelf Books in Quincy, restoring the original name of Epilog Books. She sold the storefront business to Barn Owl Books in 2017 as her health declined. During that period she also served on the board of the Plumas County Literacy Corporation, as bookkeeper for Christ the King Episcopal Church and at PCIRC as coordinator of the Court Appointed Special Advocate for Children (CASA) program.

She is survived by husband, Tom; father, Thomas Cendrowski; sisters, Paula Ouaddaadaa and Alison Wilson; nieces and nephews Amber, Leia, Nicole, Tommy, Trent and Colten; as well as many cherished friends.

She rests in everlasting peace.

Services followed by a reception will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 29, at Christ the King Episcopal Church in Quincy. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Plumas

District Hospital Foundation or Christ the King Episcopal Church.

Comments

---

“ I worked with Chris at PRS and respected her completely. She was kind, funny, sensitive, and genuine.
She no longer has to battle and I thank our Heavenly Father for bring suffering to peace.
She will be missed
Glenda

Glenda - September 21, 2018 at 01:24 AM