

Dorothy Henson

September 23, 1928 - October 23, 2017

Dorothy (Crabtree) Henson passed away at 89 years of age on October 23, 2017, in Quincy California. Graveside services will be held for family on November 18, 2017.

Dorothy Crabtree was born to Virgil Monroe Crabtree and Bessie Lenora Razor on September 23, 1928, in Cape Fair, Missouri--one of seven children.

After a childhood in Missouri, Dorothy met and married the love of her life, William "Fred" Henson. They relocated to Quincy, California, and spent 66 wonderful years together, which, in her words, "wasn't near long enough", before his passing in 2014. Together they had three sons: Garrell Van, Carl Len and Stanley Fred.

Dorothy spent her life caring for others, as a wife, mother, and a career as a nurse. Dorothy was a skilled craftswoman and gardener, and enjoyed spending time in the kitchen baking for her loved ones. She was a woman of faith, unconditional love, and a source of great strength and comfort for her family. Family was everything to Dorothy, and she took great joy in watching her seven grandchildren grow up climbing the tree in her front yard, and holding her eight great-grandchildren in her arms. She was cherished by all who knew her, and will be deeply missed.

She joins her parents, siblings Joe and Vera, husband Fred, and son Carl Len in Heaven.
